W. Copp, Esq.,

Messrs. Copp Clark Company,

Wellington Street West, Toronto.

Dear Mr. Copp:

I have to thank you for your kindness in sending me a copy of the book "Peo". I am afraid, however, that it will be impossible for me to get time to read it at present. There is a good deal of material lying waiting to be read which has a prior claim, and at this season of the year I am particularly busy.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter suggesting that I read the book
"Per" by instalments. The minutes are rare and the newspaper usually absorbs these moments just now, but I will see what I can do.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
